

Refund Policy

95% of our orders are shipped within 48 hours of receiving your order. If you contact us and cancel before we ship the product you will receive a refund. HOWEVER, once the product is shipped we cannot provide a full refund.

Once product has left our facility we cannot guarantee that it has not been tampered with, thus, we cannot ethically resell it. If you return it anyway, you will be charged a 25% restocking fee as well as shipping charges if you cancel after your shipment is sent.

We hope you understand our position and will not place an order unless you are serious about your purchase.
